The Highwood Chamber of Commerce is not your ordinary Chamber of Commerce.

A small town nestled in the midst of Chicago's most distinguished Northern suburbs, Highwood has become recognized as the North Shore destination for dining and entertainment.

Acting more as a 'REGIONAL' Chamber, Highwood has designed its' membership program to bring together businesses from neighboring communities to draw upon its renowned family-friendly festivals and Chamber events, and relish in the camaraderie of the North Shore.

With a population of only 5,500, the Highwood Chamber has realized that its' members must draw from surrounding populations to flourish. Businesses cannot only rely on its local community to survive.

Our objective is to offer members a 'cross border' marketing concept where businesses from neighboring communities can benefit from promoting and networking with other towns. Specializing in guerrilla marketing campaigns at low cost, the Highwood Chamber of Commerce has built a platform that offers member benefits that go well beyond the investment.
